

are, perhaps, 25 or 30 products of American industry said to be under the domination of trusts and combinations whose requests the committee utterly ignored and refused. So, then the statement of the circular is utterly false and without foundation in fact."

Mr. Denyse christened the prize Fitzsimmons. A market man had scratched on the crushing claw the inscription "Fitzsimmons' Left." One of the market men declared that the giant must be fully 100 years old. Mr. Denyse said that it was impossible to tell the age of the specimen, but that it was undoubtedly very old. THE REPUBLICAN JOURNAL.

BELFAST, THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1897.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING BY THE Republican Journal Pub. Co.

Editor and Business Manager.

An article in an exchange is captioned "A Printer's Tale." It probably relates to the devil.

If English capitalists furnish $2,500,000 to develop the Sheepscot valley, as promised by W. F. P. Fogg, things will hum in that region.

New England will lose quite heavily by the suspended Globe Savings Bank of Chicago. Hon. Parker Spofford of Buck-port holds 15 shares. The bank did a profitable business at first, but has been wrecked by bad management, or worse, and its officers are under arrest.

Tom Reed of Maine—"watch is speaker," as Nash would say—came out of the Simpson episode in Congress with a greater reputation than ever as an occasional orator. [Boston Globe.]

This is more manly and much nearer the truth than the usual Democratic comment on Speaker Reed.

Congressman Bailey of Texas is attaining notoriety by refusing to wear a dress suit. Yet there are occasions when such a costume is required in polite society, and Mr. Bailey only advertises his boorishness in ignoring social usages. We are reminded of an incident at the White Sulphur Springs, Virginia, where a young Englishman entered the ball room on a dress occasion clad in a rough tweed suit and wearing a colored shirt. Walking up to a Baltimore belle to whom he had been introduced, he said, "There are A and B in dress suits." "Yes," promptly replied the young lady, "they are gentlemen."

The statement from Mr. A. C. Sibley with regard to the Legro & Spalding Shoe Company will be read with interest, not only by those who have invested their money in this new enterprise but by our citizens generally. The course the company has pursued is clearly one that must win in the end, and is based upon sound business principles. "Booms" and "spurs" may have their uses; but this is neither the time nor the place for them.
When this factory was talked of a well posted shoe man in discussing the prospects said that if certain conditions were fulfilled—as they are being fulfilled now—the second year the concern would have all they could do. That seems to be the present outlook. Meanwhile the addition of $500 per week to the income of our community is something for which we have reason to be thankful.

The Maine Farmer has published a paper read at the winter meeting of the State Board of Agriculture at Wolfe-borough, N. H., by L. J. Miner of Whitefield, on "Farming as a Business." It abounds in practical thoughts and suggestions. For example, Mr. Miner says:
"We have too many men who use the offices of the town to further their own interests." (That comes home). "Such men are not profitable for the taxpayers.
We want men who will do the business for the town just as economically as they do it for themselves. It makes quite a difference whether such men pay a town out of debt or into debt. You have all seen that with the same appropriations, and seemingly the same conditions, one set would have a surplus and the other a deficit." Another point touched upon is the feeling existing between the town or village and the outlying districts. We think Mr. Miner takes the correct view of it, when he says:

A fire department, sewers and sidewalks for our village are something that are objected to by some farmers, which may not be good economy. If defective drainage causes sickness, and fire devastates our village, our home market is gone, and the sidewalks are just as necessary to a farmer's wife, when she goes to town, as they are to ladies living there.
Don't kick the villagers too hard if they are willing to be as liberal with you as they ask you to be with them. Farm property in a town without a village, church or school, is the most undesirable thing the sun shines on.

The State Tax.

The warrants for the collection of the State tax have been sent out to the various sheriffs and by them served on the assessors of the towns in their respective counties.
Two years ago the Legislature made different assessments for the two years, making that for 1895 two and one half mills on a dollar's valuation (in addition to 1 cent on each poll); and for 1896, two and one fourth mills. The difference was made to provide for the expenses of the Legislative session of 1895. This year the Legislature decided to make the assessments for 1897 and 1898 equal, at two and three-fourths mills (in addition to the 1 cent poll). The total for the State was, in 1895, $843,072.30; in 1896, $731, 941.50; for 1897 and 1898, $905,179.49 each.
Following are the amounts assessed against the various towns in Waldo County for 1897 and 1898, as compared with those of 1895 and 1896:

Secret Societies.

The stated meeting of Corinthian Royal Arch Chapter will be held next Monday evening.

The Odd Fellows of Maine will, at their several lodges, on the 25th of this month, observe the 78 anniversary of their organization.

Yachts and Boats.

City Clerk W. F. Tibbets of Rockland has bought the sloop yacht Sea Spray of Alonso Daggett, and will have her in commission the present season.

Webster has made the spars for his new yacht. The mast is 24 feet long and the mainmast will be 15 feet on the head, have 13 feet hoist and be about 22 feet on the foot.
She will have no bowsprit, the jibstay coming down to the stem.

Capt. Sewall Patterson while here from New Hampshire, where he is living with a daughter, sold his schooner, the Little Kate, to Roland C. and N. F. Patterson. They will use her this summer for fishing, and next winter expect to haul her out and put on a new stern and make other improvements.

The New York Yacht club is coming to Bar Harbor this year. The new commodore, J. Pierpont Morgan, has plenty of money, and has already offered the most valuable cups ever presented the club for cruise races, and these include the $2,000 cup for schooners and the $1,000 cup for sloops for the race from Vineyard Haven to Bar Harbor.

It was reported last fall that the Penobscot Yacht Club at Rockland had disbanded, but it appears to be alive and will meet next Saturday evening to see what action the club will take in regard to races, delinquent members, etc. The Rockland Star says: "A determined effort is to be made to place the club on a more prosperous footing this season than ever before."

Howard Gould has signed a contract for the largest steam yacht ever constructed in America. She will be 270 feet over all, have twin screws, be bark rigged, and will be named Niagara, for Mr. Gould's famous twenty-rater. The yacht will be built by the Harlan & Hollingsworth Company of Wilmington, Del., and is to be delivered about April 15, 1898, when her owner will start on a cruise around the world.

The famous old yacht America, which has been laid up at Chelsea, Mass., bridge, is to go into commission again this year, by Paul Butler, son of Gen. B. F. Butler, her late owner. The America was built in 1850, and in 1851 went to England and captured that coveted yachting trophy now known as the America's cup. The Boston Globe last week published a cut of the "Yacht America as she appeared five years ago," but in reality it shows the America as she was 46 years ago.

Mr. G. W. C. Drexel's new steel steam yacht Alcedo was launched at Wilmington, Del., April 10, and will be delivered to her owner July 1st. Shortly after her owner will cross the Atlantic for a cruise to Norway and Sweden, and he is not likely to be seen at Islesboro this year. The new Alcedo is 185 feet over all, and all her fittings and appointments are of the best. She is specially designed for comfort and sea-going qualities, and is expected to make 17 knots under forced draught.

Concerning Local Industries.

The Rockland Opinion correspondent reports that nearly every lime kiln in Rockport is in operation, and that there is soon to be a slight advance in wages.

Capt. J. W. Burgess has cut 800 tons of ice for his retail city trade, about 400 tons for other customers, and has superintended the cutting of the Belfast Ice Co.'s 14,000 tons.

Mark Wood & Son have made a handsome white marble tablet with Old English inscription, for Mrs. Amelia S. Cates, a mate to that erected over the grave of her husband, Jediah C. Cates.

C. E. White, of the firm of Mayo & White, returned Saturday from a trip into Hancock county. He reports large sales, and says the prospects for the firm's trade in summer drinks is very encouraging.

There is a brisk demand for building brick and the price has advanced from $3 to $8 per thousand. This will materially help one Maine industry, to say nothing of the tonnage that will be needed to carry the bricks to market.

The Belfast Machine & Foundry Co. cast a large supply of plow parts Tuesday to prepare for the increasing demand for that class of goods. They re-lined the casting-furnace and otherwise improved the plant the past week.

Mayo & White have begun bottling and as their goods are fast finding their way into public favor the sales largely increase from year to year. They have the best appliances for bottling, and use only pure fruit juices for flavoring. Their ginger ale last season was very fine, and this season they will have a better one out to the public. The reported article. It contains no capiscum and is a healthful and pleasant summer beverage. It may be had in quantity of the manufacturers and will be on sale in the grocery stores.

The Cooper Brothers of Newport are now running their venerable mill full blast. They have recently received an order from a Rhode Island firm that calls for 35,000 cloth boards, of which they make a large quantity during the year. The firm also received a letter one day recently from Berlin, Germany, asking prices on cloth boards. It was a surprise to them at first, but the foreign house had seen their advertisement in a prospective that they will ship goods to that country. [Bangor Whig.]

Loss of the Bark Nellie Smith.

SAVANNAH, GA., April 10. The steamship La Grande Duchesse which arrived to-night from New York collided Friday morning at 8 o'clock with the American barkentine Nellie Smith bound from Cuba to New York, cutting the barkentine in two. The barkentine sank in five minutes. Capt. Dodge, first mate Asson, second mate Nelson and seamen Simms and Hans of the Nellie Smith were drowned. The Duchesse launched a life-boat and rescued with great difficulty seamen Frank Conroy, Lars Haverson and cook W. S. Babbidge. A purse of $175 was raised on the steamer and divided equally among the men. The collision occurred in a dense fog and in a heavy sea. The steamer struck the barkentine quartering on her stern stern splitting her in half. The Nellie Smith was built at Milbridge, Me., in 1883, and registered 596 tons gross. She sailed from New York.

Capt. J. O. Hayes of Belfast was the master of the bark, but remained at home this trip, leaving the vessel in command of Capt.
Frank B. Dodge of Peabody, Mass., formerly of Islesboro. Capt. Dodge leaves a wife, one son and one daughter. Mr. Babbidge, the cook, who was saved, is an Islesboro man. The other members of the crew were strangers. The vessel was principally owned by Capt. Hayes, Fields S. Pendleton of New York and F. T. Bradstreet of Gardiner. formed Daily by Fair Castor, &c.

"Thousands of people in Maine can testify to his great work. By request after Thursday day, April 15, he will continue to heal the sick, lame, blind and the broken down for a limited time. Go and receive this heavenly benefiction. God's noblest, best and grandest gift to man. Do not despair, a word to the wise is sufficient. Office in Hayford Block, Opera House entrance. Hours 9 a. m. to 12 noon, 1 to 5 p. m. Sundays excepted.

The Churches.

Rev. B. C. Wentworth preached his farewell sermon in Skowhegan last Sunday, and after conference will be given a charge in Andover, Me.

The meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. will be held in the Baptist vestry next Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. Topic, Different kinds of death and the conquest of them. 1 Cor.
15: 50-58. Leader, Rev. J. F. Tilton. All young people are cordially invited to attend.

The East Maine Conference will meet in Calais April 21st. Bishop W. F. Mallahan, D. D., L. L. D., will preside. Fare by rail from Belfast and return $6. Rev. G. G.
Winslow will leave for conference Monday, April 19th, on the morning train.

Rev. J. H. Parsley will deliver his final sermon, for the present, in Rockland April 25th, and on the following Wednesday will leave for his new field of labor in Lawrence, Mass. Monday night he delivered an address at the First Baptist Church, Lawrence, to which he was recently called.

Special services, commemorative of the institution of the Lord's Supper, will be held in the Universalist Church at seven o'clock this, Thursday, evening, this being the anniversary. New members will be admitted at this time by the historic rites of baptism and confirmation, and Holy Communion will be administered.

Prayer meeting at the North Church tonight at 7.15. Topic, The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Ex. 12:1-15; Is. 53; John 1:29-37; 19:28-30; Luke 24:25-35.
The last of the special Lenten services will be held Friday evening in the vestry at 7.15.
The exercises are very helpful, consisting of scripture reading, short prayers, singing and the reading of selections from Ian MacLaren's little book, The Upper Room. A cordial welcome will be given to all who come.

Universalist and Congregational churches uniting their services is the idea which was started last Sunday evening in West Somerville, Mass., when Rev. George W. Bicknell, D. D., a Universalist minister of Cambridge, occupied the pulpit of the Day Street Congregational Church. The services will be in the nature of joint revivals, and will be participated in by the members of both churches.
This is the first time in Massachusetts where churches of these two denominations have united in their services. The idea meets with the general approval of the attendants at both churches.

The executive committee of the Maine Free Baptist Association met April 8th in Brunswick to arrange the preliminaries for the approaching State meeting, which occurs in October, and will probably be held in a prominent town in the eastern part of the State. Considerable time was also given to the consideration of requests from churches for financial assistance, and appropriations were made to Fort Fairfield, West Buxton, La Grange, Island Falls, Limestone, Chester, West Paris, and to the Ellsworth Quarterly meeting. The reports from the treasurer and the State agent indicate a favorable condition of the churches, and a better state of the treasury than might have been expected when general business is in its present condition.

Papers and Periodicals.

The editorial board of the Kent's Hill Breeze for the ensuing term has been appointed, as follows: Editor-in-chief, Alberta Black; assistant editor-in-chief, Mary Scarlies; locals, Mabel Smith; alumni, George Kirkpatrick; personals, Edward Stone; athletics, Morton Pierce; exchanges, Euglantine Miller; business manager, Charles Austin; assistant business manager, Roscoe Tarbox.

Mayo & White, Hazeltine furnishes to the North American Review for April an article of intense political interest on "The Foreign Policy of the New Administration," in which he essays to forecast the probable action of President McKinley during the next four years in his dealings with foreign powers.
The abilities, temper, character and acquirements of the new President are such, Mr.
Hazeltine declares, as to guarantee a careful guarding of the nation's interests should international complications arise.

The Boston Daily Journal contains a daily department specially calculated to attract bicycle riders. All the news of the cycling world is chronicled there, and each day is published a great number of interesting and valuable suggestions to attract the owner and rider of a wheel. In addition to these features of the Daily Journal, the Sunday Journal devotes still more space to the interests of wheelmen, and all the latest news of the leading cycling organizations of New England are to be found there, while interesting photographic pictures of racers and famous riders are preserved by all who are fond of the sport.

Bicycles FOR SALE.

Wish to call attention of the cycling public to our line of bicycles and sundries. We handle this year, as before, the REMINGTON as a leader, a bicycle in many respects the best in the market. The demand for a lower priced wheel has induced us to put in a line, not of cheap wheels, but of good, reliable bicycles at moderate prices.

This line includes the FOREST CITY for $65.00, and the FALMOUTH for $50.00. In style, finish, ease of propulsion and fittings these wheels are not excelled by any sold this season.

Options are furnished on tires, either Vim or Morgan & Wright; enamel, maroon or black; saddles, Sayer hydraulic or Duplex; pedals, rat trap or rubber.

These wheels are covered by a broad guarantee and we can say with the maker, that "better value in bicycles has not been offered." A comparison will verify this statement. [37% Discount for cash.

Pine Tree Circle, Kings' Daughters, will meet Monday evening with Mrs. Shaw in the Fletcher house, Bay View street.

W. A. Arnold started Saturday for Brlghton with a car-load of cattle and hogs, but sold out the lot at Burnham to Libby Bros.

Pensions have been granted as follows:
Original widows, etc., Lydia A. Whitten, East Jackson; Goodwin Staples, father, North Brooksville; additional, Albert B.
Wooster, Vinahaven.

Walter Dutch burned his right arm quite severely at the Colburn boarding house last Saturday by getting his bare arm in contact with a hot stove funnel.

Ringling Bros. circus will be the only big show that will visit Maine this year. It is their first visit to this State and it is said to be the best show on the road.

Percy Benner has bought his partner's interest in the barber shop and bath rooms of Pillsbury & Benner, and has re-opened the place. The establishment has been given a thorough renovation, with new paint, paper, etc.

Housekeepers should not fail to read "A Plea for Good Bread" on the 6th page. It is from the pen of a valued contributor, who writes from her own experience, and who, it will be seen, recommends "Pillsbury's Best."

Prof. J. C. Whitten had a busy season with his violin the past winter. It was not unusual for him to play four nights in a week and travel an average of 20 miles for each engagement. He will play for a dance in Odd Fellows' Hall next Saturday evening, and for the May ball at Mystic Grange Hall, April 20th. July 3d he will go to Green's Landing for the 25th consecutive year to play for the usual two days' dance to celebrate the 4th.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE. William Dunbar, a farm hand in the employ of Mr. Alonso Butler of Union, shot himself, Saturday noon, at the house of a neighbor, Charles Bachelder. He was examining a revolver belonging to Mr. Bachelder, and either accidentally or intentionally shot himself in the temple. He is still living. The ball has not been located as yet. Mr. Dunbar had been somewhat depressed of late and it is thought suicide was his intention. One eye is entirely gone and he lies in a critical condition. A brother of Mr. Dunbar arrived at Union Monday from Skowhegan.

The County Commissioners opened their April term at the Court House Tuesday.
Three road petitions are before them, as follows: to discontinue a section of the highway in Thorndike from a point near the residence of C. E. Peavoy to a point on the new Jackson road near the farm of A. C. God-ding; for an alteration in the county road from North Monroe to Jackson; and to lay out a new town way in Thorndike from the Wing bridge southerly to a point near the Walker schoolhouse, the selectmen having refused to locate the last named. The Commissioners ask all who have bills against the county to present the same on or before Friday noon. The term will be a short one.

THE PASSING SHOW. The Hafford & Lincoln Yellow Kid Extravaganza Company is announced to appear in Belfast Opera House, next Tuesday evening, April 20th.
They give an entertainment that is replete with new and attractive features. It is full of fun from start to finish, and the members of the company are exceedingly clever artists, according to the reports that come from every place where they have been. They have with them a band and orchestra of great talent and merit, and a "novelty parade" is advertised that is expected to be a particularly nice thing. Eddie Le Barre's minstrels are booked for Belfast Opera House Thursday evening, April 23rd.

WASHINGTON AND ITS ENVIRONMENTS.
A good sized audience met in the Methodist Church Tuesday evening to make a tour of Washington, D. C., and its vicinity with President Harris of Orono College as a guide and with some very fine views as a ground work for a pleasing discourse. President Harris is familiar with the ins and outs of our national capital and has selected such views as would most interest the stranger to this wonderful city. In his introduction he gave some interesting facts concerning the selection of the site and early history of the city. The approaches to Washington, its streets and beautiful avenues were described as well as the busy life and character of the people which throng them. The parks, public buildings, many with interior views, were shown, together with private residences, and of course the capital claimed more attention than the others. Little incidents and anecdotes of personal observation invested the scenes with real life. The Smithsonian Institution and Ford's Theatre were among the most interesting views.
Georgetown, Mt. Vernon and the long bridge were shown and the lecturer described the neighboring historical points. Scarcely a picture even of the statues but showed the beautiful trees and shrubbery which add so much to the beauty of the city. The empty halls of Congress could be peeped easily in the imagination from President Harris' explanations. The White House came in for its share of attention, and lastly a very fine view of the Washington monument. The audience included a number of the Belfast alumni of the State College, who were glad to meet President Harris and have our people enjoy an evening with him.

Seaside Grange of Belfast is meeting with remarkable success both in increase in membership and in finances. Since a year ago they have built a hall at a cost of $1,350, and have reduced the debt on the same over $600. Since January 1st, the grange has increased 39 in membership, 32 being by initiation. The total membership now is 175.
Next Saturday they will discuss the question "Resolved, That the prohibitory law has done more to suppress the sale and use of intoxicating liquors than all other agencies combined." Affirmative, L. W. Hammons and Tlestone Wadlin; negative, John K.
Dunton and M. C. Hill.

BUCKSPORT'S NEW INDUSTRY. The Emerson creamery will soon be in operation in Bucksport, and 500 cows have been promised, a sufficient number to make the enterprise a success. The building erected for the purpose is all that could be desired. It is ceiled with hard pine and the floor is of the same material. A large and convenient refrigerator occupies one corner. The machinery is of the latest pattern, and was made by the Vermont Farm Machinery Co. of Bellows Falls, Vt. There are two Cooley tempering vats with a capacity of 200 gallons each, an improved square box churn holding 250 gallons, and a butter worker. The machinery will be run by steam power, the steam being furnished from the boiler at the electric light plant. An engine and receiving room is built on the rear of the creamery building.

PUPILS' RECITAL. The recital by the pupils of Mr. F. J. Rigby at Odd Fellows' Hall, last Friday evening was a very enjoyable occasion, and was quite largely attended notwithstanding the unfavorable weather.
The pupils showed great proficiency in their respective parts, and the recital reflected credit on both teacher and pupils. Following is the program:

- Bresant, Duet for Clarinets.
- (a) Mozart, Sonata No. 4 in F Major (1st Movement).
- (b) Wollenhant, Etude Op. 22, No. 1.
- (c) Fensen, Berceuse Op. 12.
- (d) Fote, Improvment, No. 1.
- (e) Tschakowsky, "Song Without Words" in F.
- (f) Moszkowski, Scherzo Op. 18, No. 2.
- Chopin, Nocturne No. 15.
- Perry for Clarinet.
- (a) Beethoven, Sonata Op. 14 No. 1.
- (b) Whitney, Allegretto "Tarantelle," Op. 23.
- (c) Kolling, Hungarian Melody, Op. 112.
- (d) Durand, "Babilage."
- Miss Carrie F. Kingsbury.

BELFAST BASE BALL TEAM. The directors of Belfast Base Ball Association met Tuesday evening and engaged Mr. J. Lewis Bacon of Danvers, Mass., as manager. The Howes lot in the rear of Congress St., which for a few years past has been used for base ball purposes, will be fitted up in good shape. The ground will be graded and otherwise properly prepared, fence and grand stand built, etc. Mr. Bacon is experienced in base ball management, having managed teams as follows: In 1888 and '89, Danvers, Mass.; 1890, Buffalo, N. Y., and Grand Rapids, Mich.; 1891, Manchester, N. H.; 1892, Salem, Mass.; 1893, Providence, R. I.; 1894, Bangor, Me.; 1895, Pawtucket, R. I. In 1896 he was in other business. He will put a first-class team in the field, and says he intends to make a winning season for Belfast to arrange the schedule of games. It is understood that the season will open May 20th, and close Labor Day, and that Belfast's first game will be in Portland about May 24th.

"CARNIVAL OF THE REPUBLIC." This is the title of a brilliant spectacular performance to be given at the Belfast Opera House next Wednesday and Thursday evenings, April 21st and 22d, with a matinee Thursday afternoon, in aid of the Girls' Home in this city. Mr. and Mrs. J. Nickerson Williams, of the Williams' Carnival Co., are in charge of the affair. They will furnish the costumes, which are elaborate in detail, and in the dances include some very dainty, delightful creations of the airy fairy style which, with the grace and beauty of the dancers, will combine to make it all very pretty. Colored lights will be used to produce the best spec-

TO THE EDITOR OF THE JOURNAL: The writer, (who was born and bred in Waldo county,) has often wondered why it is that country people invariably take their daily bread in the form of saleratus; or, hardly better, baking-powder biscuit generally eaten hot. It is certainly as unhealthy a daily diet as could be selected. I used to think that the lack of facility for obtaining fresh yeast must be the reason why so little yeast bread is made in the county; but I have lately decided that there must be some other way to account for the fact, as the best of yeast can be made at home with so little trouble. I presume another reason is that many people think it too much trouble to keep two kinds of flour on hand; and it is true that the very best yeast bread can only be made with a regular "bread" flour, while you cannot make pastry with this flour, thus necessitating keeping two brands, I once saw an article entitled a "Loaf of Bread" in a leading magazine, and it was so much help to me that I wish to write, on the same lines, something which may help young housekeepers to attain perfection in the making and baking of bread—to my mind one of the most important branches of cookery. I have been baking yeast bread for two years now, and it is only during the last year that I have been able to make and bake a perfect loaf of bread.

In the morning take your large bread pan, put in about two or three quarts of sifted flour, and warm it, if the flour has been in a cold place. I can not state definitely the amount of flour to be used, as different brands vary so much in the amount of moisture they will take up. Put a good tablespoonful of salt into the sponge and beat well. Then make a hollow in the center of the flour in the bread pan and turn in the sponge. Mix the flour into the sponge with a large spoon, and as soon as it can be handled at all, get it into a well floured bread-board. Knead well, sifting on a little flour from time to time, for about half an hour. By this time there should be flour enough Ganton's Magazine for April presents nine valuable papers on subjects of political and economic interest, in addition to the regular carefully edited departments. The papers include "President McKinley's Inaugural," "Integrity of Tariff Discussion," "Protective Navigation Laws," "Conditions of Labor in Japan," "Perpetuation of the Turks in Europe," "Lexow Anti-Trust Report," "The Problem of the Monopolist on Trusts," "Blair's Human Progress," and "A Defense of Organized Charities."

The Easter number of the New York Herald fully met expectations and was the first production of the kind ever sent out from an American newspaper office. Some idea of the magnitude of this great issue and the press facilities requiring to strike it off may be formed from the fact that as each paper consisted of ninety-two pages, the entire edition of 503,200 copies comprised the enormous aggregate of more than forty-six million separate pages—a marvelous result without precedent in the parallel of the achievements of the daily press anywhere in the world.

M'S STANDING INVITATION.

In Memory of Augusta.

A trusted friend (like many 'mid the blest) Awaits her foot;
 In memory alone we catch her smile,
 Return her greet.
 God has but claimed his own, then murmur not,
 He knoweth best,
 And in his own good time, will give to all Sweet, perfect rest.

Then patient wait; ere long to greet you may
 In the unknown,
 Though darkening clouds obscure life's sea, Storm tossed,
 And tempest blown,
 Look upward, trust in him who holds the helm, He'll take your hand;
 Somewhere, sometime your bark will safely glide
 To heaven land.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life to. I was taken with La-Grippe and all the ailments for miles about me. Of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Kilgore & Wilson's City Drug Store.

Cat That Didn't Come Back.

Lost Music.

BY J. E. C. SAWYER.

"But O for the touch of a vanished hand, And the sound of a voice that is still."

In what fair world, our darling, dost thou dwell, Since death hath thee released from earthly thrall?

O break this lonely silence! Like a bell Thy voice so sweet did rise and fall, Its vigorous music seemed to ring through all The clouds of care, the mists of doubt and sin;

When thou wast here we heard its dulcet call Triumphing o'er all worldly strife and din.

We need it now. Though angels ring these rounds, Sweetest, thy dear hearts here so lonely found.

O thy glad voice give strength to us bereft, O hard it is in silence thus to go,
To hear no note while thou art singing so!

Sotheron's magazine for April has an entertaining table of contents, including articles, short stories, and charming poems. The articles include "A Decade of Clever Women," "Psychic Phenomena," "Independence Hall—Its History and Restoration," and "Hypnotism as an Implement of Education." Several of the articles and stories are illustrated, which adds to the attractiveness of the number.

The apple shipments for the past season from this country and Canada have been 2,784,714 barrels, which is the largest amount ever sent in one season. A small crop in Europe and a large one here accounts for it.
